

Employee Human Resources Policy Handbook

Version: 5.0

Effective Date: January 2026

Applies To: All Employees and Contractors

1. Employment Philosophy and Scope

The organization is committed to maintaining a professional, inclusive, and ethical workplace.

This handbook establishes employment policies governing the relationship between the organization and its workforce.

2. Equal Employment Opportunity

Equal employment opportunities are provided without discrimination based on legally protected characteristics.

Harassment, discrimination, and retaliation are strictly prohibited.

3. Employment Classification

Employees are classified based on employment type, which determines benefits eligibility and compensation.

4. Recruitment and Hiring

Recruitment follows standardized processes including interviews, background checks, and eligibility verification.

5. Onboarding and Probation

New hires undergo structured onboarding programs and probationary performance reviews.

6. Working Hours and Attendance

Working hours are defined by business needs, and attendance expectations must be met consistently.

7. Leave and Time-Off

Employees may avail annual, sick, casual, and statutory leaves as per policy and law.

8. Compensation and Payroll

Compensation is aligned with market benchmarks and paid monthly with statutory deductions.

9. Performance Management

Performance evaluations are conducted periodically, focusing on goals, feedback, and development.

10. Learning and Development

The organization supports employee learning through training and professional development programs.

11. Code of Conduct

Employees must maintain ethical conduct, professionalism, and responsible use of company resources.

12. Workplace Health and Safety

A safe working environment is maintained through compliance with health and safety standards.

13. Information Security and Confidentiality

Confidential company information must be protected and not disclosed without authorization.

14. Remote and Hybrid Work

Remote work arrangements may be approved based on role suitability and operational requirements.

15. Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary measures are applied consistently based on policy violations.

16. Grievance Handling

Employees may raise grievances through formal channels without fear of retaliation.

17. Separation and Exit

Employee separation procedures include notice periods, handovers, and clearance.

18. Benefits and Welfare

Employee benefits include insurance, retirement plans, and wellness initiatives.

19. Ethics and Whistleblower Policy

Unethical behavior may be reported confidentially through the whistleblower mechanism.

20. Policy Review and Updates

Policies are reviewed periodically and updated to align with legal and business requirements.